Petitioners

versus

Financial Commissioner Revenue, Punjab Chandigarh and others

Respondents

CORAM:- HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE JASBIR SINGH

HON'BLE MRS. JUSTICE NIRMAL YADAV

Present: Shri Anupam Bhardwaj, Advocate for the petitioners

Jasbir Singh, J. (Oral)

Dispute in this writ petition pertains to partition of the land amongst the petitioners and respondent Nos.5 to 35. It is not in dispute that the mode of partition has become final and on the basis of that Naksha Bey was prepared, which has also become final and the petitioners are agitating their rights against the final partition. To say that the partition has been effected contrary to the provisions of mode of partition, even the order determining the mode of partition has not been placed on record. Further counsel for the petitioners has failed to prove that any loss has been caused to the petitioners on account of final partition. All the authorities below have given a finding of fact that the partition was effected as per mode of partition. No case is made out for interference.

Dismissed.
